

Sandra Ramsey Davis

February 25, 1942 - May 23, 2013

Spartanburg – Sandra Ramsey Davis, 71, of Spartanburg died Sunday, May 19, 2013 at her home. Mrs. Davis was the daughter of the late Sherman and Floree Ellis Ramsey. Mrs. Davis was a teacher at the South Carolina School for the Deaf and Blind. While at the SCSDB she was in charge of developing a nature trail. She was a member of Morningside Baptist Church.

Survivors include two sons, Herman Martin “Chip” Davis III and Brian Neil Davis; and two grandchildren, Alexa Davis and Cord Davis.

Visitation will be 1:00 p.m., Tuesday, June 4, 2013 at Living Waters Funeral Home and Crematory followed by memorial services at 2:00 p.m. officiated by Dr. Kirk Neely.

Events

JUN Visitation 01:00PM - 02:00PM

4
Living Waters Funeral Home and Crematory
529 Spartanburg Hwy. S./P. O. Box 758, Lyman, SC, US

JUN Service 02:00PM

4
Living Waters Funeral Home and Crematory
529 Spartanburg Hwy. S./P. O. Box 758, Lyman, SC, US

Comments

“ You are one of the highlighted people that lighted my path. You are one of the counselors that've counseled me to go my way. You've showed me the love that I have to learn, pay attention, and follow. Oh, Mrs. Davis, you've taught me so much for me to travel, and now I've got it. When I was in the second and third grades, you were my sunshine. Never ever forget you for as long as I live. My heart, yes, ma'am, my heart. So much love to you, Ms. Davis, much love. bows Again. bows

Greg - August 24, 2014 at 04:52 AM

“ I see quite just a few affiliate etnrepreneurs that shy away from selling excessive-value point products, thinking, “œwhoœ s going to want to purchase that?â€. Iâ€m with you, although “ itâ€s excellent idea to supply a wide variety merchandise at totally different price points to appeal to wide range of consumers.

Galila - August 24, 2013 at 08:35 PM

“ I will dearly miss Sandra. I was blessed to call her my friend. She had such a loving heart. She loved nature so much and was so proud of the nature trail she established at SCADB.
I was with you all in spirit this afternoon while I was at work.

Susan Prestipino - June 04, 2013 at 06:55 PM

“ My deepest condolences to Sandra's family. I attended junior high and high school with her. It was my pleasure to share lunch with her at a mini reunion about a year ago. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.K

Judy Welch Herring - June 04, 2013 at 11:52 AM

“ I am very sad Mrs. Davis was my most favorite teacher at South Carolina School for the Deaf. She's wonderful person I remember when I was down she was comforted me I remember she said don't worry just ignore people who picked on me. She was fun in the class I had great memories of her. I will miss her a lot! Her family are in my prayer! Love you Mrs. Davis.

Keisha Burrell (Thomas) - June 04, 2013 at 10:11 AM

“ I truly sad my most favorite teacher Mrs. Davis she was a wonderful teacher at South Carolina School for the Deaf she taught me in 1989 to 91 I never forgot her beautiful smile I had a great memories of her. I got four honor roll from her she's good teacher in science, reading, math etc. I truly miss her! Her family are in my prayer. I love you Sandra.

Shea McKenzie - June 04, 2013 at 12:55 AM

“ Sandra was a really pleasant person to be around. I had plenty of nice conversations with her. She had a warm smile, a positive outlook, and loved family gatherings. My sincerest condolences to Brian and Chip.

Katja Burnett - June 03, 2013 at 06:56 PM

“ Sandra was a wonderful woman. I always loved sitting next to her at family gatherings and holidays and hearing about her life, faith and kids. Sandra was a prayerful person and loved the Lord Jesus. She loved her boys and grands and extended family and she will be missed.
I love that Sandra never let her handicap hold her back from life, love and the sharing of herself. I will miss her smile and hugs most of all. Joy and Peace ~ Tommy Wilkes

Tommy Wilkes - June 03, 2013 at 04:59 PM

“ Chip, Brian ... my thoughts are with you both ... I will miss Sandra.

- Shannon

Shannon Burnett - June 03, 2013 at 04:06 PM

“ My sincere condolences for your loss. I count it both a joy and a blessing to have worked along side your mom and to have shared good conversations. Again, Katharine and I extend our hearts to both of you.

Jack Slemenda - June 03, 2013 at 12:14 PM

“ My Aunt Sandra will be remembered fondly for the times we spent together talking, laughing, shopping. Her visits to me in FL were always joyful times. Our last outing together in Charleston at my niece's wedding were so much fun. I loved her so much. Sandra believed the scriptures were God's Holy Word. She loved His son, Jesus Christ and looked forward to his return. She will be raised from this "sleep" at that day. For my nephews, Chip and Brian Neal, and my three sisters I send my love and thanks for taking such good care of Sandra's final resting place til Christ returns.
Love, Babette

Babette Densmore - June 03, 2013 at 06:44 AM

“ I am saddened by Sandra's death. She was an excellent teacher and a fine woman. I always admired her zest for life and the joy she got from Nature. She made the world a better place. Thank you Sandra.

Joan Slemenda - June 02, 2013 at 07:29 PM

“ Sandra and I were good friends all through Southside Elementary, Jenkins junior high and high school. I was delighted to be with her at our 50th Class reunion a couple of years ago! I have lots of pictures of her from the great time we had! She was a wonderful person, and will be missed by all who loved her! I have very fond memories of her!

Lynda Wilson Munn - June 02, 2013 at 04:00 PM

“ Words can not convey the sadness my heart feels for the loss of Sandra. She was a beautiful person and I will miss her. I never got the chance to say goodbye. Alexa and Cord lost a sweet Grandmama. Brian and Chip lost a wonderful caring mother. Sandra loved her family so very much and I know they are hurting now because they don't have her any longer. I am deeply sorry for their loss.

My heart is broken.

Love,
Kim

Kimberly Davis-McManus - June 02, 2013 at 02:23 PM