“ Our family loved Mr. Maddox dearly. We were neighbors for 8 years. He and Mrs. Shirley were like a another set of grandparents for our children. We will always cherish the time we spent hearing all Mr. Charles’s story. He was so proud of his family and a strong Christian. He was always happy to help anyway he could. He will be greatly missed by all.

I am sadden to hear of the passing of Charles Maddox. When I was younger the Maddox family were very special people at my church. Charles’ parents were always kind. I enjoyed walking up the hill to visit them from my house on Gap Creek Road. Charles and Shirley were always very kind to my parents (Olin and Vera Atkins). It has been years since I have been back home to First Baptist but I have no doubt that they would have come and spoken to me and my daughter(Amie). Rowena Atkins Wasson
