

Anglee Cothran Leviner-Clary

May 30, 1937 - June 5, 2016

Gaffney – Anglee "Cricket" Cothran Leviner-Clary, 79, of Gaffney, passed away Sunday, June 5, 2016. She was the wife of Jimmy Clary and the daughter of the late Albert and Janette Cothran.

Known by family and friends as "Cricket", she was retired from Goodwill Industries. She loved to cook as evidenced by her former job as cook for Dorman High School. Cricket was very devoted as a wife, mother and grandmother. She loved singing and playing bingo. Her family meant more to her than anything else. She was a great friend to many.

In addition to her husband, Anglee is survived by two sons, Stevie Leviner and his wife Pat, and Owen Leviner, Jr. and his wife Elda; two daughters, Evie Jan Murphy and Deborah Morris; ten grandchildren: Josh and Jason Biershenk; Drew and Madison Cothran; Lee Kirby; Anglee, Scotty, Brandon, Brianna and Owen Leviner III; three great grandchildren: Jaxson & Haven Biershenk and Nathaniel Kirby; three step- grandchildren, Tyler, Jared, and Olivia; three step children, Angie Clary, Lennie Clary, and Michael McClatchy; two brothers, Mitchell Cothran Sr. and his wife Naomi, and Dennis Cothran; two sisters, Carolyn Smith and her husband Paul, and Kathy Cudd and her husband Ron; and several nephews and nieces. She is preceded in death by her son, Michael Cothran; grandson, Dylan Cothran; brothers, J.C., Doug, Clarence, Charles and Junior Cothran; and sisters, Lynn Whaley, Joann Price and Peggy..

Visitation will be 7:00pm-9:00pm Wednesday, June 8, 2016 at Living Waters Funeral Home and Crematory. The service will be Thursday, June 9 at 10:00am at Living Waters Funeral Home & Crematory, 529 Spartanburg Hwy. S., Lyman, SC 29365. Interment will be at Good Shepherd Memorial Gardens. The family is at 4195 Old Furnace Rd. in Chesnee.
