“ Dear Panuamba family,

We wanted to send our condolences and tell you how sorry we are about Tony's passing. Your son Tony was one of the first kids to befriend my son Alec when we moved here and they were second graders together. Alec was terribly upset to hear the news. I just wanted you to know that Tony's kindness will always be remembered and he is missed. I can not imagine the pain you are feeling right now but I hope the Lord brings you comfort and healing through your memories. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Sincerely,

Adrienne & Sammy Hammonds, Alec & Aneliese Morales

“ Tony there is so much to say... I mean at rd, in math class, in economics class, and in english... I mean I remember at rd when someone would say something about a Hispanic person you would always stand up and say something because you always have someone's back and you know us Hispanics stay together... when it was brake at rd and me and you and Bryan would sit there and crack jokes on each other and about the way we drove but we never truly meant it and even when we was at school walking halls to our classes...and how you was always smiling no matter what mood ur day was u put on that big smile of yours and your best thing was to make everyone smile... You always had to be that person in the class to comment on something funny so everyone would laugh and you had your own unique personality... Its sad your gone but one day we will all reunite together RIP tony see you soon 💔😭

“ I don't have a picture because it was literally all about gum 😂 I remember last semester in Mrs. Hedgepeths class, it was you, Jahlon, me, Haley, Cymphony, Brian, Shantasia.... literally everyone. One day I pulled out some gum and you went crazy. Literally 😂 And you only went crazy because it was the brand 5 gum. I really couldn't understand why you went crazy but you did. You wanted the whole pack and we argued for a good 2 minutes about how you wanted the gum and I didn't want you to have it. But at the end you ended up getting one piece anyway 😂 I miss seeing you asleep in class and everyone laughing because you were always asleep lol. What happened, you didn't deserve. You'll always be loved because of how outgoing and funny you were. You'll be deeply missed Tony. Rest easy buddy ❤️

“ Tony this photo has so many memories. This photo was always your favorite of yourself 💜 You even had it as your own wallpaper for the longest time. Every time I would comment on it you would laugh and tell everybody about how cute you looked. I would just laugh at you because you really do look adorable in this photo. Your happy in this photo. Your great big smile that you always had is right here for me to remember. I miss you tony. There are so many memories. Like When I would go eat at el mex and you would come around the corner and take addi from me and run around the store with her. You would laugh and you even threw ice cream to make her laugh. When she was just starting to walk you would make me put her down and she would walk to you were so amazed. You were one of my first friends when I moved here in 7th grade. You would stick up for me when I was getting bullied. You never let me down. You were always happy. You tried to make everybody happy. Especially when I was pregnant and I was going through some things you still managed to make me laugh. I miss you tony. I miss your big head. I miss your laugh. Your little smirk. Your corny laugh 😂 I replay people's videos of you just to hear your laugh. I wish you were still here tony. I wish you were here to help me get through this. May you Rest In Peace. Your in a better place💜
