“ To the Family and Friends of Ms. Arminda E. Curry,
I want to express my sincere condolences to you and your family for your loss. May you take comfort in God’s promise of His coming Kingdom where he will destroy death forever and resurrect the dead. At Job 14:14, 15 we read: “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” May this promise brings you comfort during this most difficult time.
With deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Jerome G.##imported-end##

“ Terence,

I know your mom was and is a special lady even though I never met her. To produce a wonderful man like you says a lot about who she is and was.

Words can not express my feelings to you and your family. I lost my dad 7 years ago and I still feel something is missing. However, when I feel sad, I remember the moments we shared that made me happy, proud and feelings of wonder. Then Im thankful that I had him in my life.

Bless you and Your family, Im here if you need me.##imported-begin##Cheryl Watkins-Knowles##imported-end##

There is no way to express the depth of love we had for her, and she was such an inspiration to me as a mom. “ Mrs. Curry was one of the sweetest people I have ever met. I think I spent as much time, if not more, at the Curry's house as I did my own. She would always hug someone and tell them she loved them and was quick to smile. She was one of the truly good people in this world and she will be sorely missed. My thoughts and prayers are with Ivan and the rest of the Curry family.###imported-begin##John Beerman###imported-end##

“ The Wyatt family extends its heart and prayers to the entire Curry family. Ms. Curry was one of the most kindhearted, loving, and giving persons I've ever had the pleasure of having in my life. I can still picture her beautiful smile and feel her hugs that always greeted me whenever I saw her. She was like a second mother to a lot of us growing up and will be dearly missed.###imported-begin##Brent Wyatt###imported-end##
