“ *Chrissy, Jay, Amanda, Matthew & family, I was doing some genealogy at ancestry & decided to look through facebook only to find out about the passing of Barb. I am completely saddened for the imaginable loss the entire family must still be suffering from. I met all of you 30 years ago back in Connecticut & when're I hear "Tears In Heaven" by Eric Clapton I think of Aunt Cheryl. I was visiting one time & she would keep playing the CD & I loved it. Every time I visit Connecticut I make sure I go to the cemetery to visit her & grandma & grandpa & make sure I clean up the overgrowth while thinking of you guys & Barb & how much you must miss her each day. Barb's sunny disposition was engaging & contagious. A free & happy spirit. I extent my deepest condolences to all the family. With sympathy,
Isabel C Collette*

“ Barbara was a beautiful person inside and out. She sent me a message a couple of weeks ago because she knew how much of a Disney fan I am. I never knew that would be the last time I would talk to her. I will miss her dearly and I know that like her mom she has become our butterfly 🦋.

“ Barbara you were there for me through the toughest times when no one else was. You helped me smile when I thought I couldn't. We also had great times at my first concert together, parties, dances, Halloween festivities, and College clothes shopping. I will miss all the laughter we had and you calling me silly multiple times a day. Your heart was pure gold. Your soul was more beautiful and pure than the best ocean view. I love you and will miss you always. RIP

“ I will always think of Barbara whenever I see a Pink Flamingo, a Palm Leaf or whenever I log into Poshmark. Barbara was my PFF (Poshmark Friend Forever). She was such a special person. I am at a loss for words.. Just know that my heart breaks with you & for all of you. My thoughts are with you during your time of grief. ~Michelle Delpha
