“ I knew Bruce first from Milliken and he was always so helpful trying to get us all on e-mail in the early years. I was delighted when he started playing bridge at the Spartanburg Duplicate Bridge Club. My husband and I enjoyed teaming with George Malone and Bruce in Gatlinburg at the Regional Bridge Tournament. Although we had not seen him since he left Spartanburg we thought of him often and his charming smile and great demeanor at the bridge table. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Martha Hartley##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family, I thought of Uncle Bruce often as the years have gone by and now my thoughts will be of him dancing with his big sister and brothers. Along with his mom and dad loved them all.##imported-begin##Becky Neely Hanner##imported-end##

“ I seldom got the chance to spend time with Uncle Bruce, In my youth we lived what seemed to me as worlds apart. I would see him and his family on holidays, family reunions and or other special occasions. The memories are faded, But the man I called Uncle Bruce... That is a memory that will never fade. As a child I was always bragging on him in my circle of class mates about his accomplishments Sports, college, career, just to name a few. I can not imagine the pain and loss that my mother and my aunt Polly must feel. I am truly saddened by his passing. Our loss is Heavens gain. God only takes the best! You are all in our prayers. I send my deepest sympathy to all those who love him.

Wishing you peace

“ Bruce was certainly a unique person. After knowing Bruce for over sixty years there are two things that stand our about Bruce. The first thing is that I have never seen him mad. He had tremendous patience and was very accepting of others and their ideas. And, if he didn't agree, he would calmly discuss or debate in a calm and friendly manner. The second thing is that Bruce was a worrier about the most insignificant things. It has been a real joy to have been a friend of Bruce and I have enjoyed many good times with him over the years. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.###imported-begin###Bob Adams###imported-end##
