“ I grew up with Kendall in the Pleasant Grove community. He and his sister Connie were just a few years older than me. Both Kendall and his dad were great auto mechanics. They were good / hard working people. Prayers to the family. If possible could someone in the family forward my e -mail to his sister. dbdillard@charter.net

“ We have lost a great member of our family and our hearts are so heavy this morning! Ken was a hard working loving and giving man ! Loved his family ! His only child came into his life and give him the joys of his life Jordan, Halie, and Jacob! Great husband, father, and grandfather! We're gonna miss him so much! Love you Ken! Pray for family as we all have lost a big part of our family!

“ Our hearts are sad in the passing of our classmate, dear Kendall. He was loved by all who knew him and he will be dearly missed. May God surround you with His love to give you strength and peace as you face the coming days during this sad time and let us rejoice in God's promise that we will see our loved ones again in Heaven with Him in the "sweet bye and bye". May God bless each of you. With our love and prayers, Clyde and Linda (Classmates Greer High class of 1960)
