“ What a beautiful friend I had in Miss Carolyn. When we worked together I was her boss but she would not hesitate to let me know something or put me in my place. She told me one time that I was not listening to her and that straighten me up right then. After that I made sure I listened. She loved her family and constantly talked about her husband, daughters and her grandchildren. What an angel heaven has received. I know she will be missed. May God bless the family.
