“ Woot was a wonderful example of what living life should be. His goal was to live 100 years and he did it.

Woot was the most honorable and personable gentleman I have ever had the privilege of knowing. To know Woot was to love Woot. May we harbor the loving moments with him in our hearts and use his example of living and dying with his dignity. May God bless Walt and the family with peace and calm during our period of loss and grief.
