“ Fond memories of Sanford surround our school years together.. especially Byrnes High days. Sanford blessed us with his negotiating skills..his wisdom..his strong stance for those who had no voice.. both then and now. As we worked to keep the warm friendships alive and well over the years, he was most reliable, responsible and faithful.

His Faith was strong, simple, and stable setting the standard for many of us. Thank you Sanford. Thank you Eleanor. Thank you Father God for having our lives intertwine over many decades. The blessing belongs to all of us who call them "friend".

“ Eleanor and family, Linda and I shall call your names in prayer, praying that God might comfort you in the loss of Sanford. Death is a terrible thing from our perspective, but not from God's. HIS Word says, "precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of HIS saints." All in Christ are saints. His father, Charles was a "prince in Israel" and Sanford followed in his footsteps. WOW what a reunion in Heaven.

May God comfort each of you in this difficult time.
