“ Where I dont have many photos of Aunt Christine I do have many fond memories with her growing up. She always threw the best birthday parties for Michelle and they always had the best snacks, and loads of other great food. She loved to play card games. Above all, I remember her always being loving and kind. She will be dearly missed.

“ In Loving Memory of My Dear Aunt Chris, Your presence was a gift, your love a blessing, and your laughter a treasure. You were more than an aunt—you were my best friend, a guide, and a source of comfort. Though you are no longer with us, your spirit lives on in every cherished memory and every lesson you shared. I will carry your kindness and warmth with me always. Until we meet again, rest peacefully, until we meet again.

“ To My Sister in Heaven

My dear Christine, Though my heart is heavy, I find peace knowing you are now with Mom, Dad, and all our loved ones who have gone before. I imagine their arms around you, welcoming you home with joy. No more pain, no more struggle—just peace, light, and love.

I miss you deeply, but I carry you with me in every memory, every smile, and every quiet moment when I feel your presence near. One day, we will be together again. Until then, I will hold you close in my heart, and trust that heaven is shining brighter with you there. Love you RIP
