“ Mrs.Littlejohn, one of my best childhood memories was meeting this sweet lady and feeling instant genius sweetness as she welcomed me in her home, first person in our home town to have not snubbed this young wardell from across the tracks , may seem silly to say now but it was a very big deal to me . Love and prayers for this lovely family as a part of their heart gains her heavenly wings

“ Christine was a Godly Christian lady. She was so faithful at our church, Apalache Baptist. She faithfully played the keyboard there for many years. She was down to earth and easy to talk to. She loved her friends and her family. She and Billy were always together. Christine will truly be missed by all who knew and loved her. I know her body is healed and she is in heaven. I know I will see her again one day! So thankful that we have this hope!

“ I helped Christine deliver Meals on Wheels and we had the best time. She was so funny. I will always remember her at choir practice walking up those steps in pain but she was so faithful. I loved her and knew she loved me. May God bless all of you especially my friend Billy .

“ To Billy And Family,

Words cannot express how much this humble lady has touched our lives. I, personally have enjoyed her talent, playing the Organ at two Churches now.

We know your lives will have a void, because ours certainly will. You are special people to us, and your walk with the Lord has touched so many lives. We will be praying for you during this time and the days to come.

“Christine and I grew up together, we were best friends forever. She and I went to Proms and often spent the night with each other. When she and Billy joined Apache Baptist Church, I did too. She was An accomplished organist, pianist, and played the keyboard in our church. She always played for me when I sang solos. She was such a special lady and always so faithful as she worked with our dear Friend Rusty Brooks who was our choir director for many years. I know she was welcomed into Heaven and is praising our Saviour and is completely happy and will greet us when Jesus calls us Home! I really loved her and thank God that we had so many great years together!!❤️

“She was the best! Every year when we had Hanging of the Green at our church she would know exactly what was needed for the music. She always played it perfectly. I counted on her every year. I have missed her playing. She was also a great friend and will be greatly missed. Love and prayers to you Billy and your family. Carol Foster
