“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although I hadn't connected with David in some time, I remember him smiling and laughing as he shared his spiritual insights, his love for family and friends, especially his mother and son. And as much as David loved to talk, I found him willing to listen with a desire to help others. I imagine him now walking with Jesus and laughing out loud in eternal bliss.##imported-begin##Linda ##imported-end##

“ Virginia and Family :

It has been a blessing to me to have reconnected with David over the last 5 years in my visits to Joey . I always looked forward to seeing him and spoke with him by phone often . I know from these conversations that he was a beleiver . May God comfort all of you as we all grieve his passing from us to his heavenly father .

May God bless you and your family ,
