

Emma Jaine Lyko

December 10, 2008 - October 7, 2022

Greer – Emma Jaine Lyko, 13, earned her wings on Friday, October 7, 2022. Daughter of Joshua and Amanda Lyko, she is survived by one brother, Austin Lyko of Pickens and one sister, Chyann Lyko of the home. Emma is also survived by paternal grandparents, Doug and Linda Isbell of Pickens, Cary Lyko of Greer, maternal grandparents Melanie Hood of the home, David Oliver of Lyman, as well as maternal great grandparents Larry and Barbara Oliver of Greer. Emma is also survived by several aunts, uncles, cousins, and her boyfriend, Ford Beard of Anderson who brought her so much joy in the final months of her life.

Emma is predeceased by paternal great-grandfather, Teddy “Pops” Lyko, and maternal great grandparents, Bob and Shirley Hood.

Emma was loved by all who met her. She had an amazing heart, loved her family and friends unconditionally. She had a special gift at a young age to be able to feel what other people were feeling and see what others could not. She loved horror movies, Halloween, fall, and Christmas. Emma loved to be outdoors with her Daddy. If you asked her, music saved her life more than once.

Emma will be truly missed by all who loved her. Our loss is Heaven’s gain! The family will receive friends Sunday, October 23, 2022 from 1:00-3:00 PM at Living Waters Funeral Home & Crematory, 529 Spartanburg Hwy. S., Lyman, SC 29365. A Celebration of Life service is planned for a later date and will be posted by the family.

Online condolences may be left at www.livingwatersfh.com.

“ She is the best cousin that I could ever have (She is my cousin by the way) and she died at 13 I was crying my heart out when i heard that she died and the last time I saw her was September 24, 2022 at my 10th Birthday party she didn't do anything but talk to grown ups but she felt like she was a grown up talking to them and I was glad to have her at my Birthday Party even though I never really talked to her but I had some great memories with her and I hope she does well in heaven and I will see her in a few years

Emma was an amazing, funny, beautiful young lady. She was the first of two of my granddaughters that I got to see be born. She loved music, watching television, and was always wanting to go anywhere. She was kind, tender hearted and sad at times. She had a great personality and was loved by many people. Our loss is heavens gain! RIP Emma Jaine! I will always miss you and love you forever!

“ I will never forget one of the times I was watching her when she was younger. And I said where did you get those pretty eyes at. And without hesitation she said Walmart. Emma may you forever rest in the arms of Jesus. You will forever be loved and missed by so many. Prayers and my condolences to the whole family. I love you all and I'm so sorry.
