“ I grew up and went to school with Freddie in the 50's and 60's. My grandparents lived on Groce Road near him and his family and we often played together. My most vivid memory of him was his always-present smile and cheerfulness. I have not seen him in many years but, from the smile on his face in his photo he never lost that smile. My condolence to his family and loved ones. May God bless and comfort you in this time of grief.
