

Georgia Mills Henson

January 19, 1944 - March 29, 2023

Taylors, SC – Georgia Mills Henson passed away peacefully surrounded by family at home on March 29, 2023. Georgia was the daughter of the late John Leroy and Mary Mills. She was the loving wife of 59 years to Jack Henson. Georgia was a homemaker by heart and loved her family dearly. She was a great mother and wife and leaves behind a legacy of love.

In addition to her husband, Georgia is survived by her children, Jeffrey Lane Henson (Melanie), John David Henson (Mellissa), Eric Michael Henson (Karen), Brandon Timothy Henson, and Deborah Clarissa Henson; 11 grandchildren; a host of great grandchildren; siblings, Roberta Perkins, Delilah Bradley, and Jannelle Mills; furbabies, Benji and Toby; as well as many other loved family and friends.

A memorial service is pending at this time.

“ Georgia was the example for being the best grandmother! She was present and available but never intrusive allowing for the grand relationship with her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was the perfect example of a homemaker and she even made dresses and things being an amazing seamstress. She is not suffering anymore and even though the loss is painful she left a legacy of strong relationships and love. I pray each of those left will find comfort and peace.
