“ My best memory of Poppa Hoose was when he was laying under a vehicle he was working on and the sounds he was making while moving around (everything hurts because your 50) sounded like he was making ❤️ lol . Jerry and me couldn't stop laughing we had tears coming out of our eyes. I'm going to really miss him.

“ I met and connected with MaryAnn in St Louis in 2012 when we both qualified for a customer service award for our company. We kept in touch and when driving up north 3 years later we had lunch with MaryAnn and Jerry - our first time with Jerry. Five hours later we continued on our way. Jerry became very special to both of us. We were ecstatic when they moved near to us in South Carolina and we got to spend some great times with them. We will miss him greatly. A great man who served and loved his country. What great conversations we had.
