“ Having family in the Greer Area I would run into Greg often....and also because of his love for music... I would run into him at karaoke clubs... Greg was always so friendly... I learned of his passing through a mutual friend Terry Wayne and I was saddened to hear this news... Prayers for his family during this difficult time.. Greg you have earned your wings..... Now go rest high.

“ Because of his life for music, Greg hung out alot at Phil's Music in Greer. I was one of the drum teachers there. Every time I saw Greg, he always had a big smile and a firm handshake for me.
We talked a lot about music and life.
I'm sure I'll see him again because of our mutual faith in Jesus Christ!

“ I met Greg the first time when we were both playing Peach League Baseball for the Greer Cardinals. He was always a loyal, dedicated, and proud man.
I really can't express how much he meant to me, and how blessed I was to be able to call him both a friend and a brother.
Greg was a very unique blend of a lot of really good things. He leaves behind an irreplaceable void in so many hearts.
God Bless him and his family and friends.

I Love You Brother...
