“ While pastoring the Spartanburg SDA Church ('76-'79), it was my privilege to have Ron as a special friend and member. I will never forget his smile, genuine laugh, and love of golf. I confess he always bet me, but wow, did we have fun! We shared many intimate and open discussions of life, work, family, and life challenges. He was so proud of his sons and daughter and their growth and involvement in our church and the community. I am honored to call him one of my special friends. O for that 'blessed day' of reunions, restoration, and the perfect peace provided for by our Saviour and Friend!

“ Oh this is such heartbreaking news! Ron has been on my prayer list for years. I will always appreciate his big smile, loud laughter, very firm handshake, and his sense of humor. I always enjoyed spending time with him whenever he would visit church when he was living in Mobile, Alabama or if we saw each other at camp meeting in Lake Junaluska. My heart hurts for the Nolan family, suffering two great losses in Dolly and now Ron. Thank You, LORD JESUS for the promise of that great reunion day!
