“ To the family

I was very sorry to read your daughter; fell asleep in death. Sometimes it's hard to understand, why things happen as they do especially when you lose a love one in death especially at such a young age. So it will be particularly hard for you dear mother and difficult for the bereaved father as well. Don't be afraid to cry shedding tears of grief appears to be a necessary part of the healing process. You may find that for a time your emotions will be somewhat unpredictable tears may flow without much advance warning be patient with yourself. When we lose someone we love the loss seems too great to bear. However Jesus gave his own perfect life as the basis for removing from mankind the curse of imperfection, sickness and death. A comforting thought that I found in the bible says sickness will not be with us forever. The prophet Isaiah pointed forward to the time when "no resident will say: 'I am sick.'" (Isaiah 33:24) although I don't know the family I send, my deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Sterling##imported-end##

I am sorry to hear of your loss, but I know God has a precious blue eyed angel in his arms, and all of Heaven is rejoicing! I have been a nurse for many years, but not many patients have touched my heart as much as Heather. She was a beautiful child, and I know you will miss her deeply. “ Danny, Kim and family:

I am so sorry to hear about Heather. Heather touched my heart in ways that she will never know. She was one of my most cherished patients to work with. Heather was such a special person, and one that this world will truly miss. She fought so hard, and she was so strong. I will miss her very much and I am sad that I didn't have the chance to tell her how special she was. I know that this is one of the hardest times for you and I pray that God will wrap his loving arms around your heart and home to comfort you. Psalm 18:2 reads "The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my Savior, my God, my rock in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the strength of my salvation, my stronghold." Just remember, that God is always with you and that all of the answers to life's hardest questions can be found in his word. I'll be thinking of you all and I will keep you in my prayers always.
