Dear Holly I will always remember you smiling face and your laugh. I will never forget the talks we had and how you told me to live every day to the fullest and be happy. walking by your office every day is hard but I know that you have the greatest experience of all and that is to walk with Jesus every day. This was your temporary home and I we will meet again one. I love you and will miss you but I know you will be looking down on us. Rest in Peace Love Ms. Beth as you always called me.
