“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your mother. I have so many memories of your family.....listening to your Dad's band play, going square dancing, eating dinner at your home, birthday parties, senior beach trip and even going on vacation with you to Texas. Nell was so kind and always made me feel welcomed.

My mom and I pray for peace for your and your families during this difficult time.

“ In addition to being an amazing and devoted wife and mother, Nell was a wonderful daughter-in-law to our mother, sister-in-law to us, and aunt to our children. She was loving, unselfish, and generous. She was kind. I never heard her say an unkind word about anyone. When I complained about a lady, Nell responded, "Well that's just the way she is, and we must love her as she is." When one of the toddlers would become aggressive, she would say, "Oh, look, he wants to play with you." She always looked and found the best in people. She had a positive outlook. She took me to the Carolina Theater in the Montgomery Building in Spartanburg to see Elvis in "Jailhouse Rock." At least 100 teenaged girls and I jumped up and down and screamed in an adoring frenzy. You know she must have been embarrassed, but she acted as though my behavior was perfectly normal and never said a word about it. Loving, kind, and caring--she was a precious lady!
Heaven is sweeter today because of her.

“ Aunt Ida Nell was our second mother growing up. I can't count the number of times she would take us places and be there for us after Mama died. Aunt Ida Nell and Uncles Jim's house was like a second home. I think we were at their house as much as we were at ours. We were always welcome to stay when we visited after we moved to Texas. She always had the coconut macaroons with the pink filling (my favorite) in the cabinet and she made the BEST hot dog chili in the world. Aunt Ida Nell was a loving, funny, and caring person. I loved watching the love between her and Uncle Jim and how they acted together. It was so moving to see.
Love you forever and always,
