“ Ikyra was like a lil sis to me ...I have known her and her brother and sister for a few years now. I remember when they would get out of school to come see me at work . or would call to come see me and my daughter . I remember when it was my birthday and we went out driving around everywhere screaming at the top of our lungs how happy we was and her smile always made my day .. She was the most brilliant and inspiring young lady and also a great friend u will forever be missed sis love ya
