October 15, 1945 - December 21, 2022

Inman, SC - Isabel Semerenko was promoted to eternal life on Wednesday, December 21, 2022 at 77 years of age. Isabel was the daughter of her father Esteban Mason, who was married to her mother Elena Siruk. Her siblings are Pablo, Juan and Christina. She married Peter Semerenko in Buenos Aires, Argentina 50 years ago. Isabel became the beloved mother of three sons, Daniel, Walter and Joshua. Her two daughter-in-laws are Esther and Aliona. Her five grandchildren are Jayson, Edwyn, Milena, David and Adam. Isabel lived most of her life in Florida. She spoke English, Spanish, Ukrainian and Russian. She loved taking care of her garden, fruit trees, pink roses and flowers. She liked fishing at the beach with her husband. Isabel was hospitable and hosted many family members, visitors, pastors and missionaries and she enjoyed cooking for them. She worked at a jewelry store and also as a housekeeper/companion of a lovely lady, who loved Isabel so much that only wanted to ride with her to the doctors and everywhere else. She financially supported many Christian ministries in the United States and South America. She was so sweet and nice to be around, and an example for all of us. We love you so much mom!
