“ We are so very sorry for the loss of sweet Jack. We are so thankful for his earthly graduation to Heaven although he will be so greatly missed. We feel blessed and honored to have been able to be called his friends and spend so much time with him through fellowship, life group, birthday parties, cookouts, and many other wonderful memories. We will always remember his love of a good cup of coffee and favorite gospel hymns. We will miss his smile, warmth, joy and laughter. He will always be missed and remembered. We love you all!

Sweet Jack will be so missed here, but we rejoice for him in his home going. No one gave bigger smiles or warmer hugs than our Jack. We are praying for all of you, his sweet family, as you navigate this loss. The world is a better place for having had Jack Lewis in it.
