

Jack Spurling

September 4, 1930 - April 9, 2013

Lyman – Jack Spurling, 82, of Skylyn Place, died Tuesday, April 9, 2013 at Spartanburg Regional Hospice House. Mr. Spurling was the husband of the late Louise Taylor Spurling and was the son of the late Joe Franklin Spurling and Pearl Rose Spurling.

Mr. Spurling served during the Korean War with the U. S. Navy. He retired from TMR Company at the age of 59. He was a member of Emmanuel United Methodist Church.

Survivors include two sons, Stephen Spurling of Charlotte, NC and Jack Spurling, Jr. of San Lorenzo, CA; a daughter, Billie Anne Spurling Snoke of Glassboro, NJ; and a brother, Joseph Spurling of Onalaska, TX. Mr. Spurling was predeceased by three brothers and three sisters.

Private graveside services will be at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Stephen and family,
We are so sorry for the loss of your Dad Jack. He was a good friend to all of us when we met him at Skylyn. My Mom and I saw him within the last month at the bank and got to visit with him a little and have a cup of coffee together, we're both so happy we got to see him then. We'll miss him but know he's with your Mom and he missed her so much. Our sincere sympathy to all of you, some of Jack's Skylyn friends, Rose Bridges, Deb Bridges, Mona and Woody Woodring##imported-begin##Mona Bridges Woodring##imported-end##

April 13, 2013 at 01:07 PM

“ My heart is broken. I always remember the times that he made me smile, which was everytime i saw him. I send my prayers to your family and pray for your comfort during this hard time.##imported-begin##Theresa green##imported-end##

April 12, 2013 at 09:50 AM