“ Lisa & Lana,
I was so sorry to hear about Lynn's death. It must be very difficult to lose a brother. I will miss him very much as I always looked forward to seeing him every week during my store call. He always had stories to share about our families, especially my father. Talking about the past always seemed to bring a smile to his face. May happy memories carry you both through this sorrowful time. Time and prayer are the keys to healing pain. May God bless you both.
With deepest sympathy,
Tina Durham Smith

“ Dear family, I am so sorry to hear of Lynn's passing. My memories of him, of course, are his "growing up years" at Washington Church. He was a sweet and talented guy. The world is poorer now but heaven is richer and I look forward to seeing him again one day in heaven.

“ Enjoyed the time in Israel we spent with each other. Beautiful heart for seeking his king and the apple of God's eye, Jerusalem. Sad to hear of his passing yet he celebrated Passover with The Lamb whom he deeply loved.

“ I first met Lynn at a Highway to Zion class in early 2010. We went to Israel together on Highway to Zion tours in 2010, 2013, 2014, 2016, and 2017. I consider Lynn to be one of my closest and dearest friends. Lynn truly loves the Lord with all his heart, mind and soul. He will be missed by everyone at Highway to Zion, and Beit Yeshua. My deepest condolences on your loss. Lynn was sweet soul and he had a great sense of humor and an infectious laugh!

I met Lynn on a Highway to Zion trip to Israel in 2016. I liked him right away. I remember when we had gone underground to the tunnel that led under the temple, I had claustrophobia and he was kind enough to take me out. I think he felt a little like I did in that tunnel. He was a sweet soul and I always looked forward to seeing him. He was a Godly man and a prayer warrior. I will miss our times around the table on Shabbat listening to him bless the Challah and the wine. Rest dear friend in the arms of our Messiah.

“ So honored to get to know this wonderful, dear friend for over 5 years. He always had the BIGGEST heart toward others. I appreciate his prayers for the women during the Highway to Zion conferences. I enjoyed our trip together to Israel in 2017 , and enjoyed working alongside him in children’s school. His love for Father was undeniable. I had the privilege to hear him play piano once in his home. May He take great comfort in the Fathers Arms now. He will be greatly missed. Praying for his sisters and his family during this time.
