

James Aaron "Jim" Farmer

February 9, 1941 - August 31, 2015

FAIRFOEST: James Aaron (Jim) Farmer, 74, went home to be with his Savior on Monday, August 31, 2015. Mr. Farmer was married to his loving wife Joyce Simmons Farmer for fifty-four years and was the son of the late Cecil and Jeanette (Gaskin) Farmer.

He was a member of the Arcadia United Methodist Church where he served as Church Treasurer for many years. An avid golfer, he was proud of the accomplishment of 8 holes-in-one across the years. Mr. Farmer was employed in textiles, where he served in management and sales for many years.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Farmer is survived by three children: Terrie West, Todd Farmer and Julie Farmer and her husband, Chris Jones; four grandchildren, and 3 great-grandchildren; a sister, Rebecca Farmer Edington and a brother, John Farmer.

A Celebration of Life will be held at the Arcadia United Methodist Church, 391 Arcadia St., Arcadia, SC on Wednesday, September 2nd at 11:00am with receiving of friends and lunch following the service. Officiating will be Rev. James Carter and Rev. David Ervin.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests Memorial Gifts be given to: ARCH Ministries, PO Box 143, Arcadia, SC 29320.

“Becky & John your family has always been special to us, since the days daddy & Mr John fished together & we all worshipped together at Epworth. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you, his loving wife Joyce, & the rest of the family. I'll never forget Jim's testimony at the "drop-in" at the lake for John & Susan's wedding --- it was so very heart-warming. God has surely welcomed him Home with open arms! Love to all of you

Joyce, we are so surprised and sorry to hear of Jim's passing. We are at the beach visiting our children and will not be able to attend the service. We cherish the times that we had together at Pigeon Forge and other events. We will keep you and the family in our thoughts and prayers. Bob and Barbara Mabry
