

James Eddie Rogers

August 25, 1932 - September 27, 2025

Moore, SC – James Eddie Rogers, 93, passed away peacefully on September 27, 2025. James was the son of the late Walter and Addie Rice Rogers and the loving husband of the late Mary Rogers.

James proudly served his country in the United States Army and carried the values of service, strength, and perseverance throughout his life. He was known by all as a genuinely friendly soul who never met a stranger. Whether it was a quick hello or a long conversation, James had a gift for making people feel like family. He found joy in the simple pleasures—especially fishing and walking. In recent years James continued to demonstrate remarkable strength and determination. Despite his physical challenges, he remained fiercely independent and self-sufficient, never allowing hardship to diminish his spirit. He is survived by his son, Jerry Norman; siblings, Sara Gist, Dianne Styles, Loretta Bomar, and Chenita Owens; and many nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his brothers, Walter Rogers and Johnny Rogers and his sisters, JoAnn Rogers and Elizabeth Drummond.

The family will receive friends on Friday, October 3, 2025 from 4:00 PM - 5:00 PM at Living Waters Funeral Home & Crematory.

Tribute Wall

“ I was mr rogers caregiver and I totally loved him like he was my grandfather. I will miss our rides to woodruff, shopping at the meat market and dollar general. He was my guide due to i didn't know anything about woodruff. You will be missed and sending condolences and prayers to his family and friends 🕊️🕊️🕊️! Fly high Mr Roger, watch over all of us 🕊️🕊️🕊️🕊️!
