

Jaron Lawson Jones

October 16, 1986 - August 25, 2024

Spartanburg, SC – Jaron Lawson Jones passed away on August 25, 2024. Jaron was the son of James Jones and Michelle Jones-Mullen and the loving spouse of Heather Smith.

As a child, Jaron loved to spend his time swimming, playing paintball and video games. He also loved to collect matchbox cars. Jaron's proudest moment was becoming a father and he devoted his time to being a wonderful dad to his children. He enjoyed watching his son's talents blossom on and off the football field and was actively involved in his athletic events. He also enjoyed spending time with his daughter and watching her grow. His children were his pride and joy. Jaron's passing will leave behind a void, but his memory will live on in the hearts of those who loved him.

In addition to his parents and spouse, he is survived by his children, Journee and Dylan; his twin brother, Shawn Jones (Kelley); his sister, Tifaney Jones; his nephew, Blade; his niece, Kalista; his step-sister, Wendy Hipp; and many other loved family and friends.

He is predeceased by his step-mother, Mary Hipp-Jones; his step-father, Bill Mullen; his aunt, Frances Owensby; and Uncle Red.

The family will have a private celebration of life.
