“ I STG I miss you the most lil baby.. u were my little whoally.. u were always down, and u had my back. U meant more to me than u ever really knew, my heart literally came out of my chest the night I got the phone call from my mom... I completely lost myself for some time after that. .. I love you boy every time I hear that song I think of you. Your always on my mind , no matter how much time passes I think of you always "Every step I take , every move I make, every single day every time I pray I'll be missing you. Thinking of the day, when you went away, what a life to take what a bond to break I'll be missing you." I love you and miss you so much, just wanted to remind you that your always on my mind and forever in my heart, save me and my boys a seat up there in paradise... Until then be our guardian and keep us safe would you ? I love you lil baby... The good die young , but your left way to soon... Your wings were ready but my heart wasn't 💔

“ Bubba I can't believe it has been 5 months since you went to Heaven. Still seems like it just happened to me. I miss seeing your smile and talking to you either thru text, messenger, or FaceTime. I miss feeling your arms wrap around me when I was upset or hurt. You always knew how to cheer me up no matter what the situation. Hope you are having a great time up there. Give mama and everyone hugs and kisses for me... I love you so much and miss you everyday. And even though you might be my little brother you always acted more like a big brother to both me and Crystal, always so protective. So I always tell everyone u are my little "big" brother. Fly high bubba... "until I see you again"... love always you big "little" sis, Angel
