“ Our Jennifer had lots of good moments in life and some sad ones too. I remember you as my sweet flower girl and then our Alayna as your flower girl. And so many times in between. We had lots of fun family times and I think most recently about our Gilfillan reunion at the beach. We wore cute tshirts and laughed a lot. I think about our tons of phone calls and texts. I will cherish the last time I saw you and all the pictures we took of the cousins! You were loved Jennifer and you knew that. Our job as your survivors is to love on Meadow as best we can. We want her to know a life full of Jesus moments. I can't think of anything you would want more. May we all count your death as a wake up call to stay connected to those who matter. Take time for the phone call and spend time loving not hating. I still can't believe you are gone. Yet, I must face reality. I will miss you dear one and will think of you often. Praying that we can uplift Meadow in all her adventures to come. Our love to all of those hurting from your loss. Love, Aunt Gina and Uncle Buttons

*Dear Jennifer,
RIP beautiful young woman...God has wrapped his arms around you & took you home...It was an honor to know you thru your Momma Karen who is my very dearest friend. Meadow has captured my heart. There are no words to express my sadness and pain I know your beautiful family is dealing with right now. Knowing you are with our wonderful Lord can give some comfort. My dearest K...oh how I wish I was there with you holding your hand. I love you, Meadow, Jeff and Justin y'all are in my prayers. I'm always here for you my sweet dear Karen...Gods Blessings your forever friend Love always, Debbie & Family xoxoxo*

“ To Freddie and all the family, my heart hurts for all of you—knowing your pain is indescribable...I saw Jennifer last at Aunt Betty's funeral last year....wish I had talked to her or hugged her more! She always had the sweetest smile and showed the love of Jesus to me and those around her...now she is at eternal rest and with Aunt Betty, Uncle Harold, and all those gone on before. Earth's loss is definitely heaven's gain...I claim all of Romans 8 for us all, especially the latter verses that tell us “nothing—not hell, death, the devil, his demons, sickness, things in power on earth, etc.,—nothing, nothing can take a child of God who professes His Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, as Savior—out of His blessed, nail-scarred hands or separate us from Him.” I am convinced that Jennifer was a Christian, having made that decision a long time ago. Although we wish we could have helped her here on earth with any pain, take comfort that our Lord is giving her perfect peace now! May you be comforted by knowing that she is with her Heavenly Father and seeing all her loved ones already gone before. We love all of you, and are praying for you..may we live professing our Lord so one day we can see her and be reunited again! Love and prayers, Cathy Gilfillan Webber

“ I will never forget Gilly. I would never call her Jennifer... She was always Gilly to me and my family. She was a great friend of my sister and i. When my sister passed, she was almost the only one I could talk to because she knew us well. She was always there for me. I miss her more than I show. Her Facebook page pops up on mine and it hurts. I will always love and miss her. Praying for her family and everyone else. She touched so many hearts.
