

Mr. Jerry Allen Taylor Sr.

April 7, 1940 - March 18, 2015

Lyman - Jerry A. Taylor, SR, 74, of Lyman peacefully entered into the presence of Jesus Christ on the morning of Wednesday, March 18, 2015. There to greet him was Verna Selcho Taylor, the love of his life for 56 years. He was the son of the late Joe Norman Taylor and Bess Robertson Taylor. He is survived by two sons, Jerry A. Taylor, Jr of Lyman and his wife Allison, David Glenn Taylor of Charleston, SC; six grandchildren, Jared, Nathan and Ridge Taylor, Adam and Jackson Cork and Summer Ervin Clough; and one sister and brother in law, Shirley and Bennie Brookshire of Mt. Holly, NC. Jerry was an active member and former deacon at First Baptist Lyman and the Men's Adult 4 Sunday School class which he loved dearly and considered all of the members to be his brothers. Jerry had passions. He has been a landlord in the Lyman area since 1975. He founded Taylor Auto Sales in Lyman in 1979 after 13 years of service with Gombert Volkswagen beginning in 1966. His primary earthly passion was his family and people. His friends were just as his family. He lived a life of service and those whom he touched would tell you that he served with love and excellence. He will be greatly missed by many but will be forgotten by very few. Visitation will be at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, March 21 at Life Song Church in Lyman followed by services at 1:00 pm officiated by Pastor Jeffrey Hickman, Rev. Scott Stancil and Rev. Carey Hedgepath. The service may be viewed live online at www.lifesongchurchonline.com. Interment will follow at Wood

Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers the family has requested that memorials be made to the Alzheimer's Association. More information can be found at www.Alz.org.

“ Sweet service today. It was so true what the pastor said. Jerry helped people when he knew they needed help. It was not about the bottom line to him. It was a pleasure to know him. He meant a lot to my family. There are not many people around like him. He had a good heart. He will be missed! Vickie Tow

“ Jr, David, and Shirley, I'm so sorry for your loss. Jr, I remember when I was 7 years old and your daddy picked me up off the curb in front of the community cash on groce rd. to take me home to watch the 3:00 traffic. From that day on, he called me glamour. I used to babysit you Jr. when your mom and dad would go to the races. There are so many good memories as we all grew up as children, I remember Uncle Joe and Aunt Bess living next door and they were so good to us. There are so many family members that love you dearly. All of our love and condolences, to all your family, Lynn Edwards Genoble and Dean Genoble

“ Dear Taylor Family: What a glorious day March 18, 2015 was!! It was the day that Jerry & Verna Mae were united, once again, in Christ's presence together! I hope this gives you comfort in your loss, to know that all is perfect for them now, no suffering, illness or worry. How Jerry will be missed by all his friends, including us. A fine man in every respect and someone you can be so proud of. Someday we will all join them, and that, also, will be a glorious day. Our Love to you all - Harold & Norma Mullinax

“ Junior & David,
So sorry to hear about your Dad. My prayers are with you and your families.
Take comfort in the fact your Mom and Dad are together again. Special friends are hard to find and harder to replace. He will be missed. Memories are precious and so were they.
With sympathy,
Devale
