“ So sad, Jessica was a good friend of mine in school... she will truly be missed!! I pray her babies receive the comfort they will desperately need as they grow older and continue life with out their mother... I know I needed that same comfort and for God to guide me as I was once... "that child" who continued life with out her father and May God guide them along with the rest of her family as he done and continues to still do so for me! You all will be in my prayers!!
