“ Thinking of her now, remembering watching the wheel of fortune and pretending that I know how to play scrabble. And how much she did for her community, whether it be with the quilts, meals on wheels, or just being a light in her church. I still remember ringing the bell at Ebenezer, and staying afterward for lunch. I miss it sometimes.

Love you Jojo.

“ When I lived in South Carolina, my husband was diagnosed with Stage IV cancer. I had always seen the little historic church on Ebenezer Rd in Greer, and I started to attend. Joanne was one of the loving, helpful members of that glorious little church, and I will always remember her graciousness and kindness. We moved soon after to be with family so I didn't get to know her as well as I would have liked, but she was a shining example of God's work on earth. I just came across a note my sister had written for me to send to Joanne as a testament of how much she had helped me, and that my sister loved the creative gifts from the church bulletins. I did not have her address at the time, and the note was placed in a box with other mementos until I found it yesterday. Perhaps this way, Joanne's specialness will be recognized by even more. God has another angel.

“ Ken, I was truly blessed to know Joanne for the 7 months I have lived in SC. Even though I only visited with her at the pool, she was a shining example of God’s love for humanity. So glad you found each other, and had so many wonderful years together. I am praying you find great peace and comfort in knowing she is with The Lord and pain free. Part of your heart went with her and I know from experience the void will hard to endure, but you will be together again! Blessings, Rita Jarvis

“ Joanne, You not only opened your home to me---you opened your heart. Your bright light will shine in my heart forevermore. Thank you for teaching me to always do "What Jesus would do" and for being the best friend/ Mom a "daughter-of-the-heart" could ever have. I will cherish our memories and "Let my Light So Shine" for Jesus as I remember you always in my heart. I love you and I will see you at the base of the Throne !!!
