“ Mrs. K, Mike, Robbie Karen, Kim and families: So very. very sorry to see this. I will always remember is smile and laugh. He was so nice to us. I also have never forgotten the chestnuts that he did on the fire in your house. First time I had ever eaten them and have never had a good one since. Prayers and loving thoughts to all of you.

ME

“ Dear Judy, Mike, Rob, Karen and Kim you have my heartfelt condolences for the loss of you husband and father. Another iconic Vienna Community Family member belongs to the ages. He was a most liked member of our Pin Oak neighborhood family. And to this day I dispute him calling me out on strikes. He was one of the last of his generation in our neighborhood, with only a few left. I once a neighborhood kid, am now the old guy so it seems. I pray that our heavenly father will assuage the anguish of our bereavement and leave us only the cherished memories of the loved and lost, and the solemn pride that must be ours to have shared in such an extraordinary life.
