“ I am in disbelief. I can't believe I'll never see your smiling face again. You were a great friend to my whole family. Your support was invaluable when we were going thru the whole car shopping ordeal, you jumped up to give Tony a ride to the dealership on short notice, more than once! I'll really miss seeing you and talking to you. You flattered me too much sometimes, telling me what a good mom I was, etc... but thank you anyway! It was quite welcome.
