“ My dear dear friend and brother in Christ. Although we hadn't seen each other since we were very young (and quite stupid), it was wonderful to reconnect with you over the past years. I don't know how much of your friends from your flaming youth knew of your life change, but I'm proud to say that I am one of them. The thought of seeing you again in Heaven makes me smile every time. I didn't find out that you went home to the Lord until quite some time after it happened and, it broke my heart. But I know I'll see you again. And that will be a great and happy day. I miss you my friend.

“ I only knew Mr Grice through Facebook. I admired his benevolent endeavors; and enjoyed his upbeat persona and beautiful smile. Today is his birthday and I couldn't let this pass. He made the world a better place for many, and his absence is conspicuous. 🌸

“ I first met John in his B.C. days and even then, he would be the one everyone would want to be around. He would immediately become your best friend who always enjoyed just being around you. My fondest memory of him was when he and my late father would be in a nice restaurant and completely frustrate those pretentious few who were with us. Some years afterwards, I heard John accepted Christ and was serving the Lord. Life caused our paths to deviate significantly throughout the years. Several months ago, I could not get John off my mind. I must remind you it was at least 20 years since I last saw him. However, when I saw his profile on Facebook, I immediately recognized that “John smile”. He could have lived to 120 years and that smile would give him away! I reached out to him, and we had a wonderful time catching up. We talked about the Lord and how he shared Christ with my late father some many years ago. Dad accepted Christ just prior to his death in 2014. To this day, I believe John’s testimony of Christ was one of those seeds planted in his life. Our family will forever be thankful to the Lord for using John to minister to Dad. John loved everyone he came in contact with, and many loved him. Well done good and faithful servant. We will see you again in the sweet by and by.

Love,
Michael J. Garvin

“ My memories are all very good of brother John and the sorrow I feel is that I didn't get to spend time with him before he went home to be with the Lord. But my heart knows this man loved the Lord and his fellow man with all of his heart and will be greatly missed.

I can only say that the time spent with my friend Big John Grice was an adventure & a pleasure. I was there when he began his transformation to the Lord. He helped me with things in my life that were going rough for me at that time. He helped give me strength to carry on. God bless you & keep you safe until we meet again my friend. 💖🕊️🙏😊.

My best memories of John are the way he was always smiling and asking strangers if he could pray for them. Although my heart is broken I am at peace in knowing he is more alive now than ever before with our Lord and Savior Jesus. May God give peace to all of his family and friends.

“ Our gentle giant and friend. Whenever we needed anything he was there to serve. When he knew we had a need for beds for our woman's home, he was right there. We will miss you John. Sadies Hope Ministry is thankful. Lives changed for an eternity. ”

“ In December 2021, I was in the South Carolina area working with my girls at Cross Roads Ranch when I met John. I volunteered to help him unload a truck at one of his warehouses. It was pouring down rain! When we got to the warehouse, we ate cold, leftover chicken livers and gizzards. The tow motor would not work. And so I looked at John and said, “Well, I guess we will have to unload it the old fashion way. Do you want to hand it down from the truck to me, or do you want me to hand the goods to you?” He had the funniest look in his face, and replied, “My back hurts just thinking of that!”

John’s commitment to the Lord, led him to feeding thousands and thousands of people every month. He not only provided food, he provided household goods and necessary items.

John truly had a genuine servant’s heart! He had an infectious smile and laugh that would carry any room! He will be missed!

“ I can't say enough about Big John. They were so few times that I caught him not smiling that it wasn't even worth talking about. And love and kindness and patience in his heart, and if you spent more than 5 minutes with this man, he became an inspiration and a blessing to you right away. John and my precious daughter Shelly became very close and he advised her in a lot of boy things that I thank him for even today. Big John, we enjoyed life here together my friend. But just hang on brother, save me a place at the lamb supper because we'll all be home sooner than you think to join you again my friend.

❤️❤️❤️ Big Love, from Pastor Moe 🙏🙏

“ John was always about unity with the tribes. I appreciated that about John. He was larger than life!! I LOVE YA BRO!! I can still hear him saying that. You could tell by the way he said it, that he meant it. And if you couldn't tell by the way he said it, you could sure tell it by the way he treated you. John loved The Lord, and he loved others. We going to miss you big John.
