“ I knew John from seeing him walk up and down my street. We spoke every time we seen each other and he was always very nice to me. I feel that I didn't approach him about the lord and savior. I went to church yesterday and spoke with someone blaming myself for not connecting with him. I know God has forgiven me and is helping me to release it off my chest. But I just wanted y'all to know he would sometimes sit on my front porch and just talk to me. I hope y'all forgive me. I was taking the blame and maybe he would be alive now. But God is helping me to get that off my chest. I just wanted to let y'all know that he was so nice to me as well as Dustin. Praying for the family and God bless you.
