“ So sorry to hear of Joey's passing. He was like a brother to me and my brothers. He lived a few houses down but was always at our house playing basketball, or ping pong, watching TV or eating dinner with us. Between him and our cousin who lived across the street, Dan Johnson, there were 7 boys in our house 24/7. It was a madhouse but Joey fit right in! He had the best sense of humor. Heck of an athlete, too.

I truly wish I would have kept in contact with him more over the years. My deepest sympathy and condolences for your loss.
