

Katelyn Marie Alukonis

September 11, 1986 - August 24, 2015

Those we love can never be more than a thought away.. for as long as there's a memory they live in our hearts to stay.

Katelyn Marie Alukonis, 28, of Cocoa Beach, Florida passed on, Tuesday, August 18, 2015. She was the daughter of Steve Alukonis and the late Lynn (Powell) Alukonis and stepmom MaryAnn Alukonis.

Kate engaged us all with her wonderful sense of humor. She had a contagious laugh and a smile that could melt every life that she touched. Her bright gorgeous, blue, sparkling eyes were captivating and subsequently voted the best in her senior class, where she attended Cocoa Beach High School. She later went on to Valencia community college in Orlando, Florida followed by The Institute of cosmetic arts in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Kate enjoyed her career in cosmetology and obtained many friends along the way. She was a ray of sunshine to everyone. A daughter, mother, sister, and so many other things to many lives and she will continue to be.

We will honor Kate and her beautiful life as we know.. she would have wanted it that way. In addition to her dad, Kate is survived by her son Braylon, her three loving sisters, Jane, Lauren (Lotti) and Emma Alukonis, her paternal grandparents Anthony and Joyce Alukonis, her maternal grandfather Bud Powell and the late Cathie Powell. In addition, many aunts, uncles and cousins.

A memorial service will be held at 7:00pm Friday, September 18, 2015 at Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, 525 Minutemen Causeway, Cocoa

Beach, FL.

Online condolences and words of encouragement, happiness, comfort, and peace, can be written at www.livingwatersfh.com.

“ There were a whole slew of kids on Greenwood Lane in the 80s and 90s. Our daughter got to babysit many of them and Katie was the first one she fell in love with. It was such a sight to see Lynn pulling those little gals in the red wagon. We loved watching them all grow up.

Words can never ease your pain but know that all of you are in our thoughts and prayers at this time.

“ I babysat you and your sisters and we're lucky enough to get to know how wonderful your mother was before she passed. We kept in touch as we both grew older and had children 😊 we would catch up off and on in the morning dropping kids off at Pre-K and our sons graduated pre-school together. We would chat of old memories of your mom and wait inline at Publix to order subs , wave to each other at stop lights follow each other on Instagram always pointing out each other's children being silly . You were a wonderful mom No a GREAT MOM ! A beautiful duaghter, friend and now Angel. People loved you and will never stop 🌻 I know I won't !!!! Your in my random thoughts at weird moments during the day and the last thought several times before I go to sleep and wish I was already in a dream 😴 I hope heaven is what they say it is & we will truly crack up luaghing like it's only been a day

“ I met Kate a few years ago, she worked and shared a apartment with my daughter at one time Heather Cannon. She was so sweet and put a smile on everyone's face. She always made everyone laugh at things she would say. My thoughts and prayers go out to her family, gone but never forgotten.

Katie, my heart aches as if It was yesterday that your Grandma Joyce told me you were gone, never will a day pass that I hear your laugh, see your smile and remember the gift you gave me, my Ashley, for without you being the most Beautiful Baby in the World, I would have never had my Beautiful Daughter, and Thank God she had Blond Hair and Blue Eyes or the promise I gave her dad that our baby would resemble you, I may never had My Son, so in many ways you live on for me in them. I Miss you so much it hurts, hopefully you your Grandparents and your Mom are having a blast together, here on earth, well, your absence is a gaping unhealable wound but that's because how Loved you are and always will be....and Kate, just to make you laugh...remember..."its a Fin Fender" LMAO - RIP- Love Peace & Hippie Grease - See ya on the Flip Side
