

Kennith Richard McCombs

June 25, 1942 - November 1, 2025

Lyman, SC – Kenneth Richard McCombs, 83, passed away on November 1, 2025. Kenneth was the son of the late Kenneth John McCombs and Violet Crystal Kimmerling and the loving husband of Martha Jane McCombs. Kenneth was an avid outdoorsman and a lifetime member and past Exalted Ruler of the Delray Beach Elks Lodge #1770. He found peace and joy in nature, especially the beach—whether casting a relaxing line or stirring up adventure with an exciting free dive. He also enjoyed golf, football, his dogs, and all things Jeep and the Florida State Seminoles.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his children, Kimberly Trantham, Kimberly McCombs, Karen Moser, Jackie McCombs, Thomas Moser, and Kenneth McCombs; and by his grandchildren, John Trantham, Coy Trantham, Shane McCullough, and Kayden McCombs.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

“ Kenny was a good friend and had great sense of humor. He knew how to tell a story and he had many to tell. Always a fun guy to be around. We really enjoyed his company. Kenny will truly be missed by Dean and I. Sure made some unforgettable memories together. RIP (Barney)
