

Larry C. Johnson

March 6, 1939 - September 21, 2015

Larry C. Johnson passed away peacefully at his home in Inman, SC on September 21, 2015 after a courageous battle with cancer. He was born March 6, 1939 in Cordova, NC to Bill and Bessie Johnson. He served his country in the US Army from 1956-1959. He moved to Dallas, Texas in 1965 where he met and married his wife Anita "Sam" Richardson Johnson.

Larry loved life and invested all of himself in the relationships with his family and a huge network of friends from around the country. He spent 43 years dedicated to the service to others, which was his life's passion. He loved his Lord, his family (especially the grandkids), and his friends and we all appreciate the example he gave us to follow.

He was predeceased by his parents as well as his brother Butch. He is survived by his loving wife Sam, his son Darryl Johnson of Gainesville, VA, his daughters Kim Johnson Hains and her husband Joe of Davidson, NC and Lori Johnson Ashmore and her husband Rob of Inman, SC, his grandchildren who he adored and spoiled rotten Ben and Hayden Hains, Carson Duthu and Alexis and Zachary Johnson. He is also survived by his sister Jackie Parrish and brother Terry Johnson, both of SC, his sister-in-law Linda Kay Bennight and her daughter and son-in-law Gina and Steve Matthews as well many nieces and nephews.

In keeping with the 1933 Carter Family song "Give Me The Roses While I Live" it was his wish to spend the last few weeks visiting with family & friends, being a part of his celebration of life, instead of a funeral service.

“ I will deeply miss Larry, whom I considered a Brother, in our Fellowship. He was one of the finest , most knowledgeable Speakers I ever heard, when he would give his talks on the Traditions, at the Texas Man to Man Conference, which he enjoyed participating in. He was a good, gentle, fun-loving soul, and a pleasure to spend time with. I respected him a lot. We knew one another on a first name basis, and greeted one another warmly, as Brothers do. I also was able to see him at the Lake Murray Men's Conference in Oklahoma, and hug on him, and just feel good knowing that he was there, too. What a fine human being. I know that he is truly in everlasting peace, in the arms of his Heavenly Father. May all that knew and loved him, be comforted during this time of transition. I hope I see him again, one day. “ Fifteen plus years ago, I needed a spiritual advisor, a sponsor if you will, in my life. When I asked Larry if he would be willing to take on that role for me, he responded without hesitation, "I just opened up a spot. I'd be glad to, honored, even." I discovered later over the years, that was a standard response of Larry's upon receiving similar requests. And the honor, as it turns out, was mine, too. Larry is sorely missed, but my life, and the lives of oh so very many others, has been blessed and enriched by his presence and the love he so freely gave.

Larry Johnson was loved and respected by many. He was man enough to tell you the hard truths that no one wants to hear because he cared more about others than himself. I was fortunate to have him come into my life when I needed someone like Larry Johnson the most. My condolences to his family and friends during this difficult time. God bless.
