“ I was blessed to know Brian since 1979. He became part of my family in the mid-80s, and even though God had other plans, I still considered Brian part of my family. I loved him like a brother I never had. Brian was genuine, kind hearted and funny. He had the gift of making people laugh & smile, whether it was a joke, a fond memory or a jab at Clemson. I will miss his unexpected calls, funny texts and his warm smile. My heart goes out to Billie Ann, his children, and all his family and friends who were blessed to know him. Rest easy brother, your work here is done.

“ I met Brian when we were in the 3rd grade, we instantly became friends, and have remained friends for 50 years. Brian, my friend, I will always love you! He adored his kids, and each time I would see pictures and speak about their beauty and good looks, he would give me that silly grin and say what else would you expect I'm their daddy! I'm so sad for y'all's broken hearts, a person such as your daddy will leave a huge void for so many of us, until we meet again! Prayers for his wonderful family.
