“ I am very sorry for the recent loss of your loved one, Lisa Lin Starks. I have a brief encouraging message I would like to share with you from God's Word, the Bible. The Bible can be a great source of both comfort and hope during this most difficult time in your lives. For an example, at Revelation 21:3-5 it assures us that the day is soon to come when our most loving Heavenly Father is going to wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and that even pain and death will be no more. I hope after reading this it will be of some comfort to each one of you. If later you would like to learn more from the Bible about why we die or why does a loving God allow so much suffering and injustice please feel free to go to the website: www.jw.org to find satisfying answers.

“ Our condolences to Lisa's family and friends. GOD help each of us with our sorrow and grief. Lisa was one amazing person. She strived to do the best and be her best in life and she raised 2 beautiful children. Lisa left lasting memories everywhere she went. Her legacy of all her hard work and accomplishments will live on forever. I was blessed to know her and grow up together. Tho Lisa is not here in human body, she no longer suffers and one day we will all see each other in Heaven. There are so many memories I have,,there was one Christmas that stands out. Lisa got a gift and she wasn't thrilled at all. I think she thought it was something completely different, her look was priceless. I have to smile and chuckle everytime I think about it. Oh and the ping pong table and split pea soup :) You are loved so much and will be missed here on this earth. Let us all remember her smile, laugh and outgoing personality and the love she had for so many. Rest now Lisa,,you deserve it.
