

LuAnn Slagle

May 26, 1960 - December 20, 2023

LuAnn Slagle, 63, whose twinkling eyes and mile-wide grin could light up a room, died Dec. 20, 2023.

LuAnn, of Duncan, South Carolina, was born May 26, 1960, in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, the beloved daughter of Nancy M. Slagle and the late Harold W. Slagle. LuAnn was intellectually and developmentally disabled since birth and was a blessing to her family and a joy to all who knew and loved her.

LuAnn attended Golden Rule Services day program in Pearland, Texas, for 35 years and was a faithful member of Shadycrest Baptist Church in Pearland. Jigsaw puzzles were among LuAnn's passions. She assembled them with great focus and efficiency and even put together a 5,000-piece puzzle of the Last Supper. That puzzle, framed and donated to the church, hangs in its lobby.

LuAnn cherished her family and relished holiday gatherings, greeting loved ones with glee and an exuberant hug. She adored nearly every dog that crossed her path.

Lu also enjoyed a hearty meal, Nintendo games and pop music. She was a devoted Dallas Cowboys fan.

Besides her father, LuAnn was predeceased by loved ones including her brother Terry and brother-in-law Donny. In addition to her mother, LuAnn is survived by her brother, Gary W. Slagle (Laurel) and sister Cheryl S.

Patterson, both of Woodruff, S.C.; nephew Ryan and niece Brittany, both of Houston; nephews Christopher (Nicole) of Chicago and Timothy (Shelby) of Boiling Springs, S.C.; and others who held her dear.

“LuAnn was a joy to be with and a beloved cousin. We will never forget her visits to see us in Florida. We put puzzles together and she had so much love for our dog Zoie. We debated the Cowboys and Steelers and shared alot of laughs. We will miss you Lu, but are quite confident that all of our loved ones greeted you in heaven and welcomed ❤️ you into Paradise.
