“ Lyndsie will always have a huge part of my heart. She never did anything to harm anyone she was the sweetest woman with the biggest heart. She always made sure John and I were ok and no matter what wanted the best for us. If we were ever in trouble she always opened her heart and door to us. I miss her so much this hurts so bad. But I know she's in heaven watching over us still as she did in life. I was supposed to spend the night with her that night and I can't help but think if only I had been there would it had made a difference? I love you Lyndsie you will always be one of my best friends. And until we meet again watch over us and keep that beautiful contagious smile on your gorgeous face and know I will see you soon. With all my heart! XoxoxoxoxoX

“ My favorite memory is when I proposed to her & her face lit like a candle in the dark . She told me yes to marrying me . Before then is our love making & bonding . We may have had our tough times but when you are in love with someone, you know that you're in love . You don't give up on love . We didn't . Like we met at our friend Alexx's house lol . She had blonde hair & just a big beautiful smile . <3 I knew somewhere in me, I had to make her mine . I felt as if I were lost until she talked to me . Like I didn't know her but some minutes & she was the life of the party . The both of us were . Everything I talk on Lyndsie is truth & things that took place . She took me & made me know where we stand with each other if I ever doubted anything about us . She didn't ever hesitate to stand up for something she loved & believed in . We cried to this song bc it sounded like us, the lyrics did . She deserved the best of the best & not have gotten hurt in her previous relationships . I'm her last & only as she'd tell me & I've never really lied to Lyndsie . She didn't deserve the hurt that everyone around caused . Even myself in the rough times shouldn't have went further than she made it to be . She had cancer & wanted love from everyone & wanted people to love us before she passed ); . She was so happy once I met her mom & son . She'd tell me everyday things that I wish that I could say right now . I appreciate the concerns of everyone . She have a beautiful soul . One like no other . There is this time when we'd do everything together . It's positive but we spent every day loving & fighting & she loved to take pictures & do the most prettiest relationship things . So many things come to mind like our talks & stuff . Mainly talked & rode around in her Volvo . ); Lol we first got together due to her letting me drive her Volvo to our friend gordon house lol . How fun in the middle of the night . Idk I can go on with memories & how Lyndsie is . /; One thing is she really loved her family & mainly her son . Okay I must go now . I love anyone who really loved her as the person she is . I love you Lyndsie bae .
Forever yours~Jonathan Michael Cook <3

“ I love you girl I remember how everyone in school thought we were cousins because that's what we told everyone! So if anyone was messing with one of us we would be like that's my cousin you are messing with lol
