

Mabel Wicker

September 11, 1941 - March 11, 2021

Spartanburg, SC – Mabel Wicker went home to be with the Lord on March 11, 2021 at 79 years of age. Mabel was daughter of the late Irvin and Elsie Coburn and was the loving wife of 64 years to Randolph Wicker.

Mabel was born in Quick Sand, Kentucky and was the youngest of 12 children. She was a member of Stroh United Baptist Christian Association which was founded by her father, Irvin Coburn, and she was also a secretary of the Christian Association. Mabel was known for being a prayer warrior and spent many years helping others through her husband's ministry to God. She was grounded in her faith, loved and cared for her family dearly and will be missed by many.

Mabel is survived by her daughter, Kim Mobley (Mike); her son, Jamie Wicker; her heart daughter, Debbie Gibson (Tom); 5 grandchildren; her great grandsons, Brandon and Garret, who selflessly helped care for her for many years, Grayson, Ayden, Titus and 17 others through marriage; and 1 great, great grandson, Brent. Mabel loved each of them with all her heart.

She is predeceased by her daughter, Krista Cook; her grandchildren, Tasha, Kristopher, Brent, and Brandon; 11 siblings; and many other loved ones.

Although Mabel is absent from the body, she is present with the Lord. A celebration of life memorial service will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, the family request that donations be made to Stroh United Baptist Christian Association; PO Box 343 Stroh Indiana 46789; or to your own home church in Mabel's name.

“ Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him.

“ Mabel and Randolph created my best friend, Krista. I know Mabel is rejoicing now with her family that preceded her on her journey to heaven. No pain, only love.
