“ Happy memories of hospitality at the Rhyne home on Weatherly Road in Inman, SC I’m certain a number of us Redeemer members will cherish all our lives. Fellowship, laughter, good conversation, fine food reigned supreme at these events where half the congregation would gather. Mrs. Elaine Gullede, Peggy’s Mother, a still a handsome lady who made you realize at once from whence came Peggy’s strikingly good looks, would sit down at the piano and soon had the entire assembly dancing to her lively tunes.—Peggy, you and yours are unforgotten...!

“ I will never forget our last telephone conversation together, just a few weeks ago, not only discussing Peg's illness, but reminiscing our past fun times together - our cruise to the Bahamas, sharing family times together w/all the children, and always keeping in touch on those long telephone conversations Peg was a true friend to Joe & me and she will truly be missed!
